INTRO

Over and over again certain circles spread the idea that one should not mention any bad thing, let alone actively fight against it because one would only draw negative energy onto oneself. But what a sick mind we must have if we can keep silent to all these satanic outgrowths, even just those coming to light in this V&C. I adjure especially you V&C couriers - multiply yourselves! And you prosecutors, criminologists, judges and co.: What are we even paying you for? You need to finally put all those committing atrocities behind bars, so that in the end the few remaining righteous people don't stand up and relentlessly penalize you, calling on you to account for this negligence of public duty.

Legal child murder

juh. Without penalty, the two authors, A. Giubilini and F. Minerva petition in their article "After-birth Abortion", for the legalization of killing children after birth. They assert: it should not be forbidden to kill a child after birth if the same conditions prevail as before the birth which would have justifified an abortion. Infanticide should be allowed if the existence of the baby poses an unbearable burden for mother, family or society. In other words even if a perfectly healthy baby comes into the world, infanticide should be legal. And what if this cannot even be called murder? Which age limit will slide down into this category of special murders next? Prosecuting authorities, where are you?*

Who will be the „carrot king“?

is. Something is really going fundamentally wrong when a kindergarten kid is crowned "carrot king", because he is the fastest at pulling a condom onto a carrot or when Pro Familia (German Planned Parenthood) comes into classrooms and practices forming genitals with grade school kids or when 12 year old girls are comforted in BRAVO because they are still virgins and receive advice about how they can change this! Yet we not only keep our mouths shut and allow this but even tolerate the infamous "Kindergarten Box" introduced by the Federal Sex Education department... and everything the children learn there in sexual pictures, they are then required to "practice" in the "cuddle corners"! Whoever does not want this should actively take a stand against it!*

Prize for killer game

ah. 5-, 15- and 25 year-olds sit for hours, days, nights in front of the computer or game consoles. In so-called killer games (ego-shooter) they practice systematic, excessive killing with weapons ranging from machine guns to chain saws. These games teach children to experience fun while another being is tortured and killed. A brain washing takes place in which the player is conditioned to not feel horror while killing, but instead satisfaction or even joy.

This year in April, "Crysis 2" (a so-called killing game) was voted best German game by the "German Computer Game Awards". "For the 'Computer Game Award' the games are ranked according to various aspects; aside from the educational aspect also the entertainment factor is taken into account", explained Martin Lorber the PR director and child protection authority (!) for Crysis Electronic Arts Publishers.

Already several years ago, the director of the Criminology Research Institute of Lower Saxony, Christian Pfeiffer said: "A society which allows such games is sick," but obviously did not take the necessary steps towards immediate prevention.

What are such institutes actually doing? They should bring about positive change.*

Pedophilia on its way to social acceptance

sj. The former director of the Institute of Sexual Sciences, Dr. Volkmar Sigusch, noted in the German medical journal Aerzteblatt: “A person with pedophilic tendencies can’t help himself any more than someone who desires an adult woman.” According to Sigusch the “neosexual revolution” of the last decades has “brought many of the sexual practices previously rated as perverse into a mild, public acceptance, but not pedophilia. It is one of the last sexual taboos.” As long as we let such voices have public credit without our counter-voice, we’ve given our future away and sealed our ruin and also our slavery.

Witness report – Ritalin

ca. The controversial discussion about the drug Ritalin not only involves therapists but also mature parents. Here is an eyewitness report from a so-called “parent consultation”: Mother: “I’ve seen children on Ritalin whose personalities were totally changed, completely apathetic and I have a bad feeling about it, my gut feeling says it’s not good.” Doctor: “It’s only 5mg, twice a day.” Mother: “But the side effects scare us!” Doctor: “Of course, these things could show up, but we can keep them under control.” Educator: “You have a very

Vision of the future or current reality?

ha. The Argentinian senate decided in May 2012 with a vote of 55 to zero for a reform of the law about transsexualism. This means that every citizen can now choose to state their sex as male or female in their passport just like that. The reporting offices must even add this without charge on all documents. Now if you think this sounds like science fiction, then you’ve never heard a thing about gender mainstreaming. It conceals an exchange of moral in such minuscule steps that most of us don’t even realize it. Gender mainstreaming is intended to get rid of the patriarchal oppression and the “fairy tale about the difference between man and woman” once and for all. It’s said that we’ve all been brainwashed into thinking there are differences between the sexes. It also wants to eliminate such discriminating words as “mother” and “father” and replace them with “parents”. Who wants that? It’s time to stand up against such insanity, because this ideology is not only already taught at universities, but is also a leading principle in the international organizations UN and the EU. And by the way, head gender ideologist Judith Butler is an international lesbian activist.

One of the strongest natural drives released

Christa Meves, child and youth psychotherapist, as well as author of many books, warns that sex addictions have already begun increasing to epidemic proportions. “Mandatory sex education with pornographic material encourages this development and therefore should be stopped immediately.” Hormone researchers have recently proven that children from infancy until puberty have extremely small quantities of the sexual hormones. Sexuality does not have this time frame and therefore has no right to be there. Because of this, those who educate children have an especially big responsibility to protect kids from premature confrontation with sexuality.

From early sexualization to insurance-paid abortions to...?

USA: The organization “Planned Parenthood” is concerned with early sexualization, sells the “needed” contraceptives, also earns with the tests for sexually transmitted diseases and is, last but not least, the largest provider of abortions nationwide. The “International Planned Parenthood Foundation” even has an offshoot in Switzerland “Plane S” or the newly dubbed “Sexuelle Gesundheit Schweiz” (Sexual Health of Switzerland). It starts with the early sexualization of our children. The instruction how to use all sorts of contraceptives follows seamlessly. Because STDs are becoming such a serious burden, they need to be treated and the vaccination against it propagated. And in case the contraceptives failed, there’s always the “final solution” of offering and insurance-paid abortion.
