INTRO

These days, someone wanted to know whether I was a homophobe. I asked why. "Well, because you mention gays and lesbians multiple times in your documentaries 'The Founding Fathers of Early Sexualization' and 'Sex Oppression'". "I answered: "If in all of my research concerning early sexualization I invariably find gays, lesbians, transsexuals and pedophiles as the manipulators, what does that have to do with being homophobic?" "The police cannot be accused of being hostile towards Swiss citizens simply because they happened to find a lot of Swiss people incriminated. The same must also count for the constant anti-Semitism uproar. For years I could not even begin to understand why I and so many other Jewish-friendly speakers were defamed as anti-Semites. They all only inertly and unsuspectingly uncovered all sorts of injustice and crimes. That has absolutely nothing to do with anti-Semitism, even if a bunch of Jews suddenly feel like their party has been crashed! Whoever uncovers the Italian Mafia is not later called an "anti-Italo" or whatever. It's more important to always state the names of those responsible. That is the only way possible that Mafioso-like structures and connections can be made visible. If a Swiss person does an injustice, it is a Swiss person, if it was an African, then an African, if it was an American, then an American, if it was a Jew, then it was a Jew. That is something you are allowed to say. — That's how it is done everywhere!

jb. Who doesn't know him? Elie Wiesel prisoner no. A-7713, probably the best known survivor of the concentration camps, so to say the living consciousness of the Holocaust. Since 1958 more than 10 millions copies of his book: "Night" have been sold and in 1986 he was awarded the Nobel peace prize. All over the world he is honorary doctor at many universities and he is decorated with many awards such as the American Golden Honour Medal of the Congress or the medal of freedom, the highest civil decoration in the USA. The avowed Zionist is given great honour and glorified since he – as a survivor of the concentration camp- is fighting against the intolerance, injustice and the oblivion of the Holocaust. But as Jean Robin points out there is a weak point in his story: according to documents from the Auschwitz – Birkenau museum published in 2012, the number A7713 was not assigned to Elie Wiesel, but to Lazar Wisel. He was 15 years older than Elie Wiesel and a friend of cc-prisoner Nikolaus Grüner who can remember Lazar very well.

So Elie Wiesel wrote books and gave reports about his suffering in the concentration camp, where he had apparently never been according to these documents. Is this the reason why some pictures

Sodomy on the rise sb. Michael Kiok, Chair of the Zoophilic Association ZETA, is campaigning in the name of 100.000 zoophiles in Germany for sex with animals to be no longer explicitly banned by law. The doctors Alfred Kinsey (1948), Robert Masters (1962), Lars Ullerstam (1966), Hani Miletzki (1999), Martin Weinberg (2003) and Andrea Beetz (2005) had assiduously worked toward the goal that sex with animals not be viewed as traumatic, but be seen as sexually delighting and emotionally fulfilling. Of course it would never be okay to rape a little animal, which would be horrible... In an introductory video about sodomy and zoophilia, the viewer is shown on the association's webpage why sex with animals is "normal". Among other things, it also shows that even every self-proclaimed animal lover is already a zoophile. What is depicted as sick is only who forces animals to have sex or gets intimate under the influence of drugs. Healthy, long-term sexual relationships between humans and animals are sadly made impossible by law, they complain barefaced.

If we stay silent today, then pedophiles will demand the same rights tomorrow and use our children at will!

The music industry and its contaminated seed

tb. Last year, during her Australian concerts, the American singer, Kesha, drank human blood, dripping from a human heart, to introduce her song "Cannibal"! And why is that? She just felt inspired to do so, she claimed. Christina Aguilera's new music video, "your body", begins with the warning: "no humans were damaged while shooting this video". This video shows violent sexual acts that reach their height in death.

In pop-music there is a strong trend involving sexual perversion, occultism and satanism. No matter how perverted and satanic the contents may be, the music industry keeps making these "artists" into stars, because they make the most profit by breaking taboos. Has our society

Monsanto Hiding behind False Flags

Monsanto- the name brand reminds us of 250,000 Indian farmers who have committed suicide, because contaminated seeds have destroyed their entire living. In the US, more and more agriculturists are warning not to use the products of this company. While farmers one after the other end in ruin, the products of this corporation keep covering our planet like a spreading cancer. In order to hide its infamous name, Monsanto sells seeds to gardeners through companies that they acquired. The Monsanto group distributes salad, tomato, and cucumber-seeds under the name of their affiliate: "De Ruiter Seeds". It abuses the name of the company "Semenis" as well. Monsanto cultivates a worldwide network of exclusively affiliated companies that are supposed to bring customers to buy their hazardous junk. Another one of them is the "Kiepenkerl" brand that originated from "De Ruiter Seeds", and can be traced up to Monsanto. Although Monsanto claims that the seeds are not genetically altered, it is important to remember that: this company's products harm mankind, and more than that they damage the entire nature on this planet.

How the world economy elite invest their money

wm. How can one invest money in research, education and science without having to pay taxes? Exactly. Through foundations. The Jewish Rockefeller family uses this principle by financing lobby groups, universities and companies with foundation funds of several billion Dollars every year. Among those foundations are: Planned Parenthood¹, Center for Strategic and International Studies², Monsanto or the universities Harvard and Yale. Especially the topic of environmental protection, conservation and ecology are strategically supported by the Rockefellers. In order to sell the scientifically confuted fairytale of the manmade climate change, environmental organizations such as Greenpeace and Oxfam receive money from their foundation. Isn't there a danger from this point of view that a lot of scientists only research certain topics and approve them because of the money they are supported with? Which scientist and prevailing opinion can we still believe in?

² It develops concepts and strategies for the foreign affairs of the United States.

"Foundations like Carnegie, Rockefeller and Ford exert a corrosive influence on a democratic society!"

Professor Robert F. Arnove

Scholarships for free to rule the world?

Today in India and Pakistan there is hardly any family in the upper middle class of which not at least one child has studied in the USA. Whoever was not able to afford the high tuition fee received a scholarship. Funds were freely available from major US-foundations like the Rockefeller- or Ford-foundation. As early as 1924 the Rockefeller- and the Carnegie-foundation had established the Council on Foreign Relations (a private American studies centre) which is the "most powerful lobby regarding foreign affairs" and under its direction the global supremacy of the US-capitalism and its radical-liberal business practices of the "open market" expanded worldwide. Today the enterprise-financed foundations almost completely influence the third world elite with their think tanks, scholarships and trainings. Astonishing how apparent charities serve other interests as well when regarded on a large scale.

The banishment of Nicola Tesla from the history books

mf. Dr. Nicola Tesla, born on July 10th 1856, was at one stage, one of the most famous people on the planet. He invented the fluorescent tube, the radio, alternate electrical current, the radar and also, according to eyewitnesses, a free energy generator, capable of producing electricity without any conventional energy source. These days, Tesla has almost disappeared from our scientific and educational books. What did he discover, to warrant such a fall from grace? He envisioned an energy revolution and wanted to transport wireless electricity for free to the customers. At that time the monopolists had been nearly rolling in money, because they had invested in copper mines and knew, that one day the world would be covered with copper wires. When Tesla's sponsor, the banker J. Pierpont Morgan (!), who also had strongly invested into copper, found out about Tesla's plans involving the wireless power transmission, he dropped him and canceled his sponsorship money. When Tesla died, his labs had been burned down, his great achievements mostly confiscated, and he himself almost forgotten. To the university students of today the impression is conveyed, that Tesla invented the Tesla coil, that a measuring unit has been named after him, and that's it. To the general public, Tesla's name is hardly known. Has Tesla's banishment from the history books been organized by those finance moguls, who felt threatened by his inventions?

Closing Point •

"I will go back into my forest to die there in peace. All the scientists and their followers are just a mob of thieves, all hanging on strings like marionettes, who have to dance after every melody which appears necessary to their well hidden slave masters. They took everything from me. I don't even possess myself anymore."

Victor Schauburger, former forest ranger and great nature researcher (1885 – 1958)
