INTRO

What do the so called "Arab spring" in North Africa, the crisis in Syria and the current unrests in Ukraine have in common? An upper class of only a few thousand people controls almost all finance world-wide. This allows them to throw nations resisting their intended global dictatorship into turmoil, promising a stable world peace and prosperity for everyone afterwards.

They own the world's biggest armament companies, with which they control whole armies. Furthermore, they own the most important world corporations, such as the mass media, pharmaceutical, food and oil corporations and so on. As a result, politicians of all kind and even educational and judicial systems have become completely dependent on them. There is no room for sovereign states in their "New World Order". Therefore, the agenda is definite: Either the remaining independent nations such as Syria, Iran, Russia and China bow to this inhuman elite leaders' dictatorship or they will face the same fate as Iraq, Libya, Syria or currently Ukraine. With the help of this V&C special issue you can decide yourselves whether this is true.

Peaceful protesters or organized hitmen?

dec. Live recordings from Ukraine expose the lies of mass media, which call Yanukovich a dictatorial mass murderer. All the while, these same media outlets report about supposedly peaceful protesters. But while security forces remain defensive and are solely concerned about securing their territories, they are being violently cornered by demonstrators for days, attacked with sticks and poles, sprayed in the face with mace and chemicals, hit with Molotov cocktails and other incendiary materials, charged at with a bulldozer, bombarded with paving stones and shot from ambush! While Obama portrays himself as an apostle of peace, eyewitnesses report that it has so far mostly been the USA which has steered and financed these terrorist activities in Ukraine. The security forces have acted in self defense after enduring for a long while, and this is now sold to the people as a government massacre. It is high time to expose these distortions of the mass media and to help the deceived people to become conscious of the facts!

Is Interim Prime Minister Yatsenyuk a NATO agent?

hoj. Arseny Yatsenyuk has been the officiating Interim Prime Minister since the violent coup in Ukraine. In his latest article, German bestselling author and journalist Gerhard Wisniewski describes him as an agent of the USA and their allies. On the website of Yatsenyuk's foundation "Open Ukraine" under the heading "Partners" it is evident to everyone which forces supported his organization in preparing the coup. Here are some excerpts:

1. The "Black Sea Trust": a US-American propaganda foundation
2. The "Chatham House": a British network for international affairs, funded by Rockefeller, Bill Gates, the NATO, the EU and the German Konrad-Adenauer Foundation, amongst others.
3. The NATO itself: the "NATO Information and Documentation Center" - a propaganda organization which was specially founded for the Ukraine

4. The NED: an organization financed by the US government for the democratization of foreign countries. Allen Weinstein who contributed to the foundation of the NED said: "A lot of what we do today (through the NED), was done secretly by the CIA 25 years ago."

5. Last but not least the US State Department's signet is clearly visible to everyone on the list of Partners of new Interim Prime Minister Arseny Yatsenyuk.

These interrelationships give the impression that Arseny Yatsenyuk as the new Interim Prime Minister of Ukraine does not represent the needs of his own people but the interests of the western powers.

Maidan-Opposition sharpshooters hired by transitional Ukrainian government?

jh. The recorded telephone call that showed up on YouTube between the European Union representative of foreign affairs Catherine Ashton and Estonian Secretary of State Urmas Paet, has been verified as genuine by the Estonian office of the Secretary of State. It contains the following description from Paet after his visit to influential activist Olga Bogomolet at the end of February: "Very unsettling... Olga also said, that all the evidence shows that the same sharpshooters shot people on both sides, police and demonstrators. [...] She showed me several photos and said that as a doctor she can judge that it was the same "handwriting", the same bullets..." Paet explained this to the EU representative of foreign affairs, per telephone and added: "It really is alarming that the new

Ukraine: National uprising in Donetsk

hm. Many citizens of Donetsk are extremely suspicious of the illegitimate government in Kiev. Suspicion is also high towards multimillionaire Sergej Tarutat, whom this illegitimate government put into the office of governor. Due to this, on March 1st 2014 in a citizens meeting in Donetsk (Ukraine) the people elected Pavel Gubarev as their governor. The 30 year old Gubarev is working towards a referendum with which the people of Donetsk can decide themselves whether they wish to remain in the Ukraine or join the Russian Federation. In a speech to thousands of Donetsk citizens, Gu-

Press conference with Putin

The press conference on March 4, 2014 with the Russian president Putin has been dismissed by the western media as eerie and the contents were mostly ignored. Now president Putin gets a chance to speak without censorship that you can assess his answers yourself.

Question: "Are you not concerned about a threatening war?"
"No. That does not concern me because we have not planned to fight against the Ukrainian people. [...] It corresponds to our national interests to protect this people who were, as we think, historically, culturally and also economically closely associated with us - this is a humanitarian mission. We do not want to subordinate anybody or dictate something to someone; but of course we can not stay aside when we see that they get persecuted, that they get exterminated, that they get plagued." [...]

To the question of the future of Crimea: We do not promise them the annexation. I believe that only the people living there are able and allowed to decide on their future. And when it was allowed to the Kosovo-Albanians in Kosovo for example or when it was already allowed in many other parts of the world to handle the right to self-determination in this way, which according to my knowledge, is embodied in many documents of the UN - then nobody has to abolish this right."

barev publicly addressed Russia's president Putin, asking for help. Following this Guberav was arrested by the Ukrainian national police. Gubarev and his supporters are being accused of - amongst other things - "damaging the territorial integrity of the state". But is it not clear that they are being persecuted because they do not want to bow to a one-world-government and give up the sovereignty of the Ukraine?

"Berkut" Ukrainian Police - disregarded victims of violence

mb. On February 20, 2014 the opposition to the government caused a bloodbath among the security police in Kiev. The mass-media labeled it: "peaceful civilians shot" by law-enforcement organs. One of the members of the police force "Berkut" reported: "The press is bribed. Our mainstream media fabricates and spreads lies. They report as if we were simply killing and maiming peaceful citizens here and no one shows how we have been martyred with explosives and fire. Nobody saw, how an 18 year old policeman was literally crucified on a gate. No one showed the broken arms and legs, the horrible burns and damaged bodies or the hundreds of smashed helmets of our people!" Who is giving the orders to the media to keep silent about these atrocities done to the Ukrainian police force "Berkut"?"

Referendum in Crimea at risk

toB. On March 8th, Olga Kovitidy, vice president of Crimea, warned via Interfax about provocation preceding the planned referendum on March 16, 2014. In this referendum the people of Crimea, were to decide themselves between reuniting with Russia and becoming part of the Ukraine. Trying to torpedo the Crimean peninsula's plan to join the Russian Federation, the opposition "Maidan"- activists drummed together enraged crowds. Moreover someone anonymously tried to destroy citizen's passports. They illegally introduced themselves as members of the election committee and required people to identify themselves with their passports, supposedly to compare these to the voting register. Credulous citizens showed their passports which were then torn up or simply stolen. There are also reports of someone anonymously going from house to house and offering people 600 Griven* for voting against joining the Russian Federation. American Secretary of State, John Kerry, emphasized during his talk with Russia's Secretary of State, Lavrov that Crimea is Ukrainian territory. On Monday, March 10th, official White House spokesman Jay Carney stated: "The referendum will not be legitimate according to the Ukrainian constitution and for this reason will not be recognized by the USA nor our allies and partners."
