INTRO

The news about the crisis in Ukraine comes in thick and fast. Klagemauer-TV is constantly reporting about it. Everybody feels that something dangerous is happening here. Not only dangerous for Ukraine, but potentially for the entire world! The fear of World War III is rising. Instead of using every possibility to deescalate the situation in Ukraine, the West is doing quite the opposite by provoking the danger of war. The mouthpiece for this is once again the media. There you only find battle cry after battle cry, over and over against the "evil one", without any active contribution to pacify the situation. Former TV presenter Eva Herman put it in a nutshell: "Listen to us, finally, you bigwigs of the media cartel! We have enough of the warmongering, which only takes place in favour of gaining power and money, yet never to the benefit of mankind. Haven't you learnt anything out of history? It's enough with propaganda and smear campaigns! We want peace!"

Covering-up politics: Peace-negotiations

is. Is there any chance for diplomacy in the Ukrainian crisis? This is what the ministers of foreign affairs of Ukraine, Russia, US and EU discussed in Geneva on April 17, 2014. The only report though, by the mainstream media was: "The question to what exactly is being negotiated in Geneva cannot really be answered." Yet who is such meaningless news useful to? Countless counter-voices from all over the world unite in one opinion:

"The only reason why we are not being told what is being negotiated in Geneva is: It's not peace plans they're negotiating but new war plans under the disguise of diplomacy! Countries which evoke wars through all means of (proven) lies, won't all of a sudden consider serious peace negotiations."

Experts from all over the world agree: These fake peace negotiations are only pursuing one goal: "Through the permanent failure of these so called 'peace negotiations' the global public is to be persuaded that warlike interventions are necessary." So the public rage against blamed countries (Russia in this case) is to be stirred up until a united war can be waged unhindered. Such covering-up politics is not to be accepted any longer without protest by the global community!

Putsch-government in Kiev launches "Anti-Terror Operation"

hoj. Even though the Ukrainian Army is put into action against their own population by the putsch-government, the European media reported unambiguously in favour of the military offensive of the new Ukrainian leadership on April 16, 2014. More and more video recordings turn up on the internet of an enormous mobilization in the eastern regions of the country. Civilians have filmed an almost never-ending convoy of tanks in the regions of Kharkov and Lugansk. It came to partial blockades of the convoy by enraged citizens.

Until now no western government representative has condemned the so-called "Anti-Terror Operation" of the Ukrainian putsch-president Turchinov, in which people have already come to death. On the contrary, US president Obama has let it be known through his spokesman: "It's the responsibility of the Ukrainian government to establish law and order". Now that is interesting! Why did no one talk of this responsibility to establish law and order when the elected president Janukovich was still in office and had to watch how armed rebels seized the government buildings in Kiev? If the USA doesn't want to give the impression of a deceiver to the global community then they should not have two sets of weights and measures. In view of the current situation, violence in Eastern Ukraine must be a taboo for all who do not want to be guilty of warmongering.

Germans distancing from the West

mj. The brainwashing by the media for the past several months which has followed the pattern "bad Russian, good West" hasn't produced the desired results. This was shown in an opinion poll on the political mood in Germany from April 2014, initiated by the news program "ARD Tagesthemmen" and the newspaper "Die Welt". The majority of the Germans don't want a war with Russia and have lost confidence in NATO and the EU. An overwhelming majority of the Germans (84%) advises against military support of Ukraine, thus they advise against a NATO operation. This majority pleads for political neutrality towards Russia and for Germany to take a mediating role. Most of the people (92%) do not want to break political relations with Russia. It would be interesting to know if the initiators of the poll expected this result?! Well, the Germans do allow themselves to have their own opinion.

Appeal to the Swiss President

“We are surprised about your public statement in the name of Switzerland; that the Crimean annexation to the Russian Federation was illegal. This clear statement has not only angered and insulted the government of the Russian Federation as well as 90% of the Crimean people but also significant portions of the Swiss population, which don’t share this view.

Dear Federal President, we urge you wholeheartedly to use all diplomatic means and all your wisdom and statecraft to stop the development of this nightmare scenario, in which Russia is used as a scapegoat at this time. As Chairman of the OSZE you own specific means to reveal the hidden agenda of the NATO-states - most of them on the edge of bankruptcy (USA, France, Italy, Spain, Great Britain etc.). It’s too obvious how they try to change things by initiating war. These clear war plans need to be prevented. We don’t want to share the fate of Afghanistan, Iraq or Libya in Europe, because wherever NATO intervened for alleged humanitarian reasons, they left traces of chaos and misery.

Liz Wahl: Resignation has been staged and. At the beginning of March the reporter Liz Wahl quit her job with the Russian TV-station RT in front of rolling cameras. She accused the station of propaganda for Putin’s policy as well as censorship. In all of western mainstream media her courageous deed was praised. Research, however, found that it had been staged by the US* think tank “Foreign Policy Initiative” (FPI*). They announced it on Twitter 19 minutes prior to the broadcast. Within less than an hour after her resignation James Kirchick from the FPI published a detailed and exclusive story about Wahl on the US news-reporting-and-opinion-website “The Daily Beast”.

* The FPI tries to enforce the US’ leading role in the world and an increase of the US-Defence-Budget.

Closing Point •

Whoever reads the one-sided reports of the mass media should look at the comment sections on the websites of the large German newspapers and TV-stations. More and more Germans are expressing their discontent towards the media by protesting forcibly against the twisted reporting on Ukraine. There are peace demonstrations on Monday evenings in Berlin and increasingly in other German cities. Thousands of people are going to these “Monday demonstrations”. Every week the number of participants increases! They don’t want war; they want peace! Here the will and the opinion of the common people is clearly displayed! Let’s play a part in this together, that this voice of the people gets stronger and more resolute!

US-warfare in Syria expands!

dag. The US-president Barack Obama visited the Saudi Arabian King Abdullah III from March 28 to 29, 2014. David Ignatius, a columnist from the Washington Post, who has good connections to high functionaries of the CIA*, reported about the conversational topics of the two leaders: “The Obama administration appears [...] to have decided to expand its covert program of training and assistance for the Syrian opposition, deepening U.S. involvement in that brutal and stalemated civil war.” It is planned to double the number of FSA rebels who are trained in the camps of Saudi Arabia, Qatar, and Jordan. This training will no longer be carried out by the military but by the CIA. Furthermore, the USA and Saudi Arabia plan to deploy new police and border-guards in the cities conquered by the FSA. According to former ARD special correspondent Christoph R. Hörstel, from the very beginning this war was planned and directed by the USA. Therefore, the doubling of the forces is not an act of fighting terrorism, but a further military attack on Syria.
